- B. If the yellow flag is displayed for a specific car with a flat tire, Birch Run Speedway allows 3 laps for a visibly flat tire if the car with the flat tire can make it to its pit under its own power only. The 3 laps rule does not apply for cars towed to their pit area. Drivers are fully responsible to ensure officials are aware they are asking for 3 laps for a visible flat. The lap count begins when you reach your pit stall. You will be allowed on the racing surface again by the pit chute official while the track is under the yellow flag. If you cannot re-enter safely then the steward will hold you until the next available safe condition. You will not be allowed to return to the racing surface under green flag conditions. Drivers are fully responsible to ensure officials are aware they are asking for 3 laps for a flat.
- C. Birch Run Speedway officials, sublet companies working safety, tow companies or security are not allowed to pull fenders or work on your car in any way. Only your crew members are allowed to work on your car while it is in the pits out of harm's way.

- F. Upon the finish of a Feature Event, the top 5 finishing positions MUST report to the tech barn. If you are unsure where you finished report to tech barn, tech personnel will keep or dismiss you from tech area. Excuses such as I was not told by tower will not work, it is the driver's responsibility to report to tech. do not stop at, drive in or have discussion with crew by your pit stall, any attempt to stop, drive slow or have discussion with crew during you're path traveled to tech barn will be a D.Q.
- G. feature races will be granted a two minute per lap time limit (example: a 20 lap race will have a 40 minute time limit, etc.). Heat races will be six laps or six minutes, whichever comes first.

Black flag circumstances: If a car is smoking, putting liquid down, has a flat tire, has equipment hanging that could come loose as a safety hazard, could impale another driver or track worker or numerous other infractions.
